Background:

The Raj Bhavan, Chennai, situated in the Guindy Reserve Park Area, is one of the very few sprawling lung spaces found in Chennai. The grounds contain some of the rare species of fauna and flora. The buildings of Raj Bhavan boast of magnificent architecture. The Hon’ble Governor of Tamil Nadu has taken special interest in preserving and conserving the plant species found in the Raj Bhavan area.

The Hon’ble Governor also felt that this rich flora and fauna and the splendid grounds should be open for viewing by the school students and steps have been taken to realize his vision.

All the students will be assembled at the Reception Lounge next to Security Gate No-2 and from there the visit to the Raj Bhavan will be on the following route:

- Arrival at Reception Lounge
- Herbal Garden
- Nursery Garden
- Bharathiar Mandapam
- The Main Lawn
- Presidential Suite
- Lakshmi Garden
- Silver Jubilee Garden
- Front view of Raj Bhavan
- Back to Reception Lounge
