The sad demise of Padma Shri, Thiru. Vivek, an Indian film actor and social activist fills me with shock and profound grief.

He was a nice gentleman, who spent his life time for the film industry and social activist. He was honoured with Padma Shri award, Kalaivanar Award and many awards for his contributions to Tamil Cinema. He earned respect, fame and immense love not just for his performances but for his professionalism and humility. His demise is irreparable loss to the people of Tamil Nadu and particularly to the film industry.
