I am deeply saddened to know about the death of Thiru. D. Pandian, former Member of Parliament.

Thiru. D. Pandian started his career as lecturer in English in Alagappa College in Karaikudi. He was elected to the Lok Sabha from North Chennai constituency in 1989 and 1991 elections representing the Communist Party of India. He was the Tamil Nadu State Secretary of the Communist Party of India for nearly six years till 2015. He was the editor of Jana Sakthi, a Tamil daily run by the Communist Party of India. With a political span covering nearly many decades his contribution to the development of Tamil Nadu will always remain unforgettable.
