

HON'BLE GOVERNOR OF TAMIL NADU THIRU.R.N.RAVI
INAUGURATED THE BRIDGE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON INDIAN FINE ARTS AT IIT CAMPUS, CHENNAI, TODAY (24.12.2022)

Hon'ble Governor of Tamil Nadu Thiru. R.N.Ravi today (24.12.2022) inaugurated The Bridge International Conference on Indian Fine Arts at IIT Campus, Chennai under aegis of Ministry of Culture, Government of India.

Hon'ble Governor in his inaugural address, urged the teachers who are nurturing and shaping the Children and Youth, the Future India, to make them understand, proud and conscious about spirituality and culture of Bharat. Indian arts and music that indicate India's identity. They are devotional and experiment of Bhakthi to divine. India's traditions and customs emphasized on oneness creation with diversity and the core is divine. Bharat is an enlighten land with spirituality and cultural revolutionary civilization.

Hon'ble Governor elaborated how Indian arts and culture reflects the depth of Bharat's high intellectual civilisation and richness of spiritual embodiment. Indian artists are not mere exhibiting their techniques in their performance but also expression of tribute to Maa Bharati.

The Governor underscored that India's traditional approach insists on everyone is member of family and part of the world. This unique approach makes India quite varied from the view of world countries who have indulged in reckless exploitation of mother Earth.

Hon'ble Governor while making a note on India's G-20 presidency highlighted that the responsibility imposed upon India is an important milestone in the journey of Amrit Kal towards destiny of Vishwa Guru as dreamed by Swami Vivekananda and Sri Aurobindo who predicted that Bharat can alone lead the world for the sake of humanity and Bharat has to fulfill its obligation.

The Governor congratulated the Bridge Academy for their immense service in establishing structure for promoting Indian Arts and Culture and honouring the cultural legends who have contributed their best to the Nation and carried the richness of our traditions to the future generations. He wished success for the conclave pursuing the Indian classical art forms to bring new innovative ideas for the people.

During the inauguration, Dr.V.Kamakoti, Director IIT (M), Padma Bhushan, Dr.Padma Subramaniam, President, Nrithyodhaya Managing Trustee, Sangeet Laya Samrat and Padma Bhushan Dr.T.V.Gopala Krishnan, Carnatic & Hindustani Musician were honoured..

On this occasion, Thiru. Arun Thangirala, President, IIT, Music Club, Thiru.N.Raghuraman, Chairman, Bridge Academy, Dr.Sumathy Sudarmoorthy, Academic Head (Dance), Dr.N.Saradha, Academic Head (Music), Thiru.A.Z.Ranjith, Academic Head (Art), Bridge Academy, distinguished invitees, dignitaries, teachers and students participated.

.....

Raj Bhavan, Chennai-22

Released by/-

Dated : 24.12.2022

Joint Director (PR)