

HON'BLE GOVERNOR OF TAMIL NADU THIRU.R.N.RAVI
FELICITATED ORGANISERS AND VOLUNTEERS OF
KASHI TAMIL SANGAMAM AT RAJ BHAVAN, CHENNAI,
TODAY (04.01.2023)

Hon'ble Governor of Tamil Nadu Thiru. R.N.Ravi, today (04.01.2023) felicitated the organizers and volunteers of Kashi Tamil Sangamam in a function held at Raj Bhavan, Chennai.

Hon'ble Governor in his Chief Guest address, urged the organizers, volunteers and the participants of Kashi Tamil Sangam to take part and contribute their best in carrying forward the vision and commitment of Hon'ble Prime Minister towards determined mission of Nation reaching its destiny of Vishwa Guru in the next 25 years. He thanked all organizers, volunteers and the participants for their active role in making the Kashi Tamil Sangamam, a mass and historical event. He also appreciated their seamless team work and collaboration with government machinery in executing the programme grandeur with perfect alignment of thinking and planning.

The Governor highlighted that Hon'ble Prime Minister's incredible idea of conducting this wonderful movement is the beginning to restore glorious India. The mass event has proven the power of unity, spirit of people and their movement in the lines of 'Jan andolan' to ensure people's involvement in every Government scheme meant for their benefits.

Hon'ble Governor underscored that unlike in the past there has been a fundamental change in vision of the Nation under the able and dynamic leadership. Post independence, we looked each part of country with differences and never looked country as one that caused differences among the people and the regions led to problems. Now, the country is looked from the perspective view of Bharat as one family than ever before. Nation is experiencing resurgence internally and externally with positive temper under solid leadership to achieve incredible targets before the time set in. World is expecting more from India to take leadership for finding solutions to global issues of nature, climate, pandemic, mass destruction etc.

The Governor added that Tamil Nadu is soul, an idea and an identity of Nation and we should keep it alive to erase some falsehood and fiction of negative approach prevailing in the state. There has been regressive politics with wrong habit of refusing every thing that benefit all section of people including academicians blindly for their own interests, claiming that the state is not integrally part of India. To that extent, Kashi Tamil Sangamam is the start of power pack journey with contribution of everyone in spreading its legacy further to people towards Nation's resurgence.

At this function, participants of Kashi Tamil Sangamam shared their experiences at the mass event with the audience. The organisers and volunteers of IRCTC, Southern Railways and IIT, Madras were felicitated. Dr.Sudha Seshayyan, Former Vice-Chancellor, T.N. Dr.MGR Medical University, Dr.Vaidhy Subramaniam, Vice-Chancellor, Sastra University and Prof.V.Kamakoti who led the Kashi Tamil Sangamam delivered their special addresses. Cultural programmes by eminent artists were organised during the function.

On this occasion, Thiru.Anandrao V Patil, I.A.S., Principal Secretary to Governor, special invitees, dignitaries, volunteers, participants of Kashi Tamil Sangamam, officials and staff of Raj Bhavan participated.
