Hon'ble Governor of Tamil Nadu Thiru. R.N.Ravi, today (27.01.2023) alongwith 150 students and 15 teachers from Kendriya Vidyalaya, IIT, Madras, Kendriya Vidyalaya, CLRI Campus, Chennai, Thakkar Baba School and Sri Venkateswara Higher Secondary School, Chennai participated and witnessed the Live Telecast of Hon'ble Prime Minister's interaction with Exam Warriors, teachers and parents at New Delhi on the 6th Edition of Pariksha Pe Charcha (PPC-2023) at Raj Bhavan, Chennai.

The Hon'ble Prime Minister's 'detailed and insightful interaction' with the students appearing in the exams is instrumental and inspirational for them mentally and physically. He said that with self-confidence, hard work, and determination, they can achieve desired success. He advised the students to focus on skill development and to enhance their knowledge to meet challenges ahead.

Prime Minister emphasised to take pride in our national heritage and in this regard made special mention of Tamil being the oldest living language on earth and urged students to take pride in it.

The Prime Minister recalled his last address to the United Nations Organisation and highlighted how he specifically brought up facts about Tamil because he wanted to tell the world about the pride, he holds for the country which is home to the oldest language.

In the conclusion of programme, Hon'ble Governor interacted with the students and motivated them not to allow depression and stress to intimidate them. They should always be more conscious about time management and make judicious use of time. He advised them to read and take note of the tips given in the book "Exam Warriors" authored by Hon'ble Prime Minister Thiru. Narendra Modi, which is an all-time guide for their life. He urged the teachers to discharge their responsibility of intellectual capacity building of students, mentoring them by motivation and guidance with updated information which will enrich young and aspirational minds.

In this function, Thiru. Anandrao V Patil, I.A.S., Principal Secretary to Governor, Tmt. Rukmini, Deputy Commissioner, Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan, Chennai, officials and staff of Raj Bhavan participated.
